If you are a teacher and leader who is inspirational and enthusiastic, committed to delivering the highest standards of teaching and learning with the ability to lead the Performing Arts department with drive, passion and ambition then we are keen for you to apply for the post of Leader of Performing Arts at Westfield Academy.

We are an 11-16 co-educational school, in Somerset, serving the town of Yeovil and the surrounding villages. Westfield is an oversubscribed and successful school with a good reputation. Student numbers are increasing and are set to continue to grow significantly over the next few years.

'This school continues to be good'. (Ofsted, May 2018)

We can offer you:

- A Performing Arts department located in a stunning suite of specialist classrooms which include a dance studio with sprung floor and a drama studio, plus our lower school theatre is fully equipped for school productions with lighting, sound and tiered seating.
- A committed and supportive leadership team, teaching and support staff
- A range of career development opportunities including induction and mentoring
- A stable and caring school community with well behaved, motivated and delightful students
- A school that is financially stable and well-managed
- A pleasant, green site with outstanding facilities
- An opportunity to live and work in fantastic part of the country.

We are looking for people with:

- A passion for learning and teaching and an ambition to develop their own practice
- The ability to inspire students to attain the highest possible outcomes

Westfield Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Appointment to this post is subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check, including the barred list, as well as other pre-appointment checks outlined in Keeping Children Safe in Education (September 2018).
